The company then present did (l) This statement is worthy of some regard; I cannot trace it to the beginning of its importance. It stands, however, an evidence of the state of coal mining in this neighbourhood in the seventeenth century. The subject is well worth pursuing. We have heard in the Armada times how The rugged miners poured to war from Mendips sunless caves. Who will tell us how the rugged miners of Yorkshire poured to war when Fairfax was putting his dour fist on Charles King of England and Rupert of the Rhine It wants explaining yet how it comes to pass that there are Enochs and Abrahams, Jabez and Jonases, and the names...
