

Blessing to Be Blue: A Memoir (Paperback)

By Mable Singleton-murrell

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Such a heart-warming and transforming account of a personal journey from early childhood to adulthood. The book demonstrates how ones past trials can lead to present and future triumphs. The author clearly articulates that ones past troubles can become a stepping stone to a better and happier life. Her strong faith in God is the key to understanding that obstacles can be transformed into great opportunities. Each chapter portrays its own unique way of addressing social, economic, educational, and personal issues which impacted the writers viewpoint of moving forward in a society that is morally unsettled! This is a must read book!! Erroll L. Royal, Ph. D We can all learn so much from Mable Singleton-Murrells memoir that offers rich historical, socioeconomic, and personal perspectives of an African American Baby Boomer who grew up in North Carolina. After losing her mother at 12, Singleton-Murrell struggles to find her way in the world. She becomes a single mother at age 17, and fights hard to escape the projects and cultural poverty. Along the way, she leans on...
