Our altitude above the sea is considerable, and yet is manifestly insufficient to account for so-well marked a condition. Our atmosphere is proverbially a dry one; but an arid climate is not necessarily a healthful one. Now it is far from being the object of this paper to attempt any solution of this interesting problem, in which so many elements must obviously enter, and in the discussion of which any unanimity of opinion is well-nigh impossible. It is simply my desire to call your attention as a possible explanation of our climatic superiority, to the existence of an element which has thus far received little attention among us: the Ozone, everywhere prevalent in Kansas atmosphere. Nor is it any part of my intention to present here any elaborate...
