As Bentley enters year five of his astonishing life he is called back to where he was born. George and Georgette Franklin have been keeping information from him that could have big consequences when Bentley learns of it. Bentleys mama and papa, Martha and Nathan, who live with the Franklins have been pondering what would be the right time to pass this information onto the next generation and which sibling should be the custodian of these historical and treasured personal papers. Luke Kannon had a deep down feeling that what they were about to learn was going to lead to another adventure somewhere somehow. He was going to watch out for mysterious happenings because he was sure Great Grand Pappy General Bentley and General Samuel and Great Grand Mom Betsy and Abby had arranged this calling. What was in these personal papers and how would they connect the past and present How would their lives be changed and what tribulations would they face Adventures planned by Great Grand Pappy General Bentley and General Samuel and Great Grand Mom Betsy and Abby were discovered by many extraordinary smaller events. They knew Bentley would guide them through many challenges until they reached their destiny. The goddess of the dawn was now upon them. Bentley returns to the home of the Franklins with Debbo Bee Moax and Luke Kannon. There they learn from Nathan and Martha that Bentleys great ancestors were born in New France and their puppies were born in Timber Crossing, predominately a mining town in the Canadian Providence of Quebec. They move from Timber Crossing to join General George Washington during the American Revolutionary War. When the battle for New France...
