They just have no idea what. It turns out that Justine's designed a treasure hunt for them, like the ones they enjoyed when they were kids and best friends. But they're not kids anymore, and they sure aren't best friends. As for that young love they once shared? Well, it's complicated. On the trail of Justine's treasure, they follow a series of clues that take them down memory lane ending up at the orchard on Apple Blossom Road. What will they find there?
