A treasury of classic verse and short stories from one of Australia s most important and best loved writers, Henry Lawson. He was born in 1867 in Grenfell in New South Wales and wrote many of his most important works about life in the Australian bush in the late-1800s. Known as the Poet of the People , Henry Lawson s writing captured the hardships and everyday lives of ordinary Australians in the time before Federation and after the gold rushes. Lawson s stories and poems are full of the drama and often absurd humour that characterised life in the Australian outback in the early years of our nation. This beautifull illustrated collection captures the essence of Henry Lawson s best loved stories and poems, while also introducing readers to some of his lesser known works.
