Excerpt: .schools and High schools of Albany, after which he embarked in the study of law with the firm of Hungerford Hotaling, for whom he was managing clerk for four years. He was admitted to the bar November, 1877, and began the practice of his profession with highly successful results. In politics he has always been an active Republican. His first public office was as a school commissioner, in which capacity he did signal and enthusiastic work. He has been honored by being elected treasurer of the Albany County and City Republican Committees and president of the Unconditional Republican Club. He has many times served as a delegate to Republican conventions. In other than political organizations Colonel Ham has served with distinction as vice-president of the Albany Club for three years, a manager of the Young Men s Association, and a member of Master s Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons. He gained his title of Colonel by having been appointed aide-de-camp by Governor Black on his staff, in which position he served most creditably until the accession of Governor Roosevelt, when he asked for and received an honorable discharge from the National Guard. In December, 1899, Colonel Ham was appointed by Mayor James H. Blessing Commissioner of Public Safety for the city of Albany, under the new charter for cities of the second class, which law became effective January 1, 1900, by which charter the Commissioner of Public Safety is head and has the control of...
