Reviews

Great electronic book and useful one. It can be written in straightforward terms rather than difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Hints to Housewives: On How to Buy, How to Care for Food How to Buy Go to the store yourself. Select for yourself the article you desire to purchase. Inquire its price. If quality and price please you, be sure that you get in weight or measure the amount you buy. Watch the scale. Watch the measure. If the meat you purchase is weighed in a piece of paper or anything else, be sure you are not charged for the weight of the paper. You are entitled to all the bone and the trimmings of the piece of meat that you buy. You should take home and make use of such bone and trimmings. The fat can be rendered and used for cooking purposes; the bone and trimmings used for soup or stew. When the trimmings are not taken home the butcher throws them into a box under the counter and sells them to someone else. They belong to you and you should have them. In buying meat, don't go in and ask for 25c. worth of meat and leave the butcher to decide how much meat you should have for a quarter. Select your piece of meat, ask the price per pound; say how many pounds you want; have it weighed; see that you get your weight and that the butcher's calculation as to how much meat you have, at a certain price per pound, is correct. Many a penny is lost to the customer by neglecting the above simple precautions. In marketing, the pennies count up very fast. Don't allow your dealer to weigh in the wooden butter dish in...
