Excerpt: . . . 11 bottom line is that if private-sector negotiations are unsuccessful in ensuring a level playing field between content creators and distributors, it is our responsibility, Mr. Chairman, to help jumpstart those talks in the private marketplace. The goals of the Audio Broadcast Flag Licensing Act are not only for the good of content creators, more importantly they are for the good of our constituents, the consumer. It simply requires that if you are going to use these products, make sure it is done fairly. That is my definition of fair use. I would like to thank the witnesses for taking out their time to be with us today and in particular recognize and commend Sirius Satellite Radio in recently negotiating with the recording industry to ensure that content creators are compensated with regards to their S50 satellite radio and download service. It is my hope that your industry peers will also follow suit. Mr. Chairman, thanks again for holding this hearing. As we begin to debate this issue, we should not focus only on the products marketed today but rather the products that will be made available in the future. Do we want to see a marketplace where there is a constant flow of new and exciting technology to our constituents Do we want to ensure the most options If we do, then there must be a balance among new radio services, property rights of creators, and fair competition among all parties. It is our responsibility to ensure that this balance is achieved. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I yield back. MR PTON. . U Mr....
